What Is Missions?

What does "Missional" mean?

What is the Purpose?

How do you do it?

The Power of Missions

The Mission's Department's purpose is to carry God's love, compassion, encouragement, and hope into the lives of children, youth, and family.

What does the Bible say about being Missional?

As each one has received a gift, use it to serve one another as good stewards of God's varied grace." 1 Peter 4:10.

Every believer has a gift they can use to further the Kingdom of God by serving others. Missionaries must tap into their spiritual gifts and God-given talents to be effective while spreading the Gospel.

What Does Missional Mean?

It is a community of God's people that defines itself, and organizes its life around its real purpose of being an agent of God's mission to the world.

- The Church's true and authentic organizing Principle is Mission
- When the church is in mission, it is the true Church.
- The Mission of God flows directly through every believer and every community of faith.
- Missional churches see themselves as reflecting the ministry of Jesus by becoming part of the life and culture of the community we live in.

How Do We Do It?

What is the Strategy of a Missional Church?

To make disciples, develop a missional culture, leading others to Christ.

- In Boulder Junction, if we had no money, what would missions look like?

What are the Characteristics of a Missional Church?

All believers in the church are to commit themselves to the task of missions and to be missional by actively and intentionally witnessing to Christ.
